Some of the special features of the fund are (1) that widowed daughters incapable of re-marriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominee predecease them after five years of admission. ## PART VI

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly, and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 10th February, 1937:—

L. A. BILL No. 9 of 1937.

A Bill further to amend the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923, for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title      1. This Act may be called the Workmen's Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1937.

Amendment of section 35, Act VIII of 1923.

2. (1) Section 35 of the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923, shall be re-numbered as sub-section (1) of that section and in the said section as so re-numbered—

- (a) for the words "paid to" the words "deposited with" shall be substituted;
- (b) for the words "for the benefit of", where they occur for the first time, the words "which has been awarded to or may be due to" shall be substituted;
- (c) after the word "receipt" the word "distribution" shall be inserted;
- (d) for the word "awarded" the word "deposited" shall be substituted; and
- (e) for the words "and applicable for the benefit of" the words "which has been awarded to or may be due to" shall be substituted.

VIII of 1923.
VIII of 1923.

(2) To the said section as so re-numbered the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

“Provided that no sum deposited under this Act in respect of fatal accidents shall be so transferred without the consent of the employer concerned until the Commissioner receiving the sum has passed orders determining its distribution and apportionment under the provisions of sub-sections (4) and (5) of section 8.”

(3) After the said section as so re-numbered the following sub-section shall be added, namely:—

“(2) Where money deposited with a Commissioner has been so transferred in accordance with the rules made under this section, the provisions elsewhere contained in this Act regarding distribution by the Commissioner of compensation deposited with him shall cease to apply in respect of any such money.”

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 35 of the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923 (VIII of 1923), enables rules to be made for the transfer of sums paid to Commissioners in India as compensation for the benefit of persons abroad or paid to authorities abroad as compensation for persons in India. But it does not provide for the transfer of distribution proceedings when the employer does not object and the dependents are in another country than the one in which the compensation is deposited. The amendment is designed to make this possible, and is required, in the first instance, to provide for transfers between Burma and India after separation. At present, distribution proceedings can be transferred from Burma to provinces in India and vice versa under section 21 (2) of the Act; but this will cease to be applicable when Burma becomes a separate country.

F. NOYCE.

NEW DELHI:

The 5th February, 1937.

NOTE.

Section 35 of the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923, is as follows:—

“35. The Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, make rules for the transfer to any part of His Majesty's Dominions or to any other country of money paid to a Commissioner under this Act for the benefit of any person residing or about to reside in such part or country and for the receipt and administration in British India of any money awarded under the law relating to workmen's compensation in any part of His Majesty's Dominions or in any other country, and applicable for the benefit of any person residing or about to reside in British India.”

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill* was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 19th February, 1937:—

L. A. BILL No. 12 OF 1937.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Tea Cess Act, 1903, for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Tea Cess Act, 1903, for the purpose of securing that the said Act should cease to be in force in Burma: It is hereby enacted as follows:— IX of 1903.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Indian Tea Cess (Amendment) Act, 1937.

Amendment of section 1, Act IX of 1903.

2. To sub-section (2) of section 1 of the Indian Tea Cess Act, 1903, the words "and Burma" shall be added. IX of 1903.

*The Governor General has been pleased to accord the sanction required by section 67 (2) of the Government of India Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Government of India have had under consideration the question of continuance of the Indian Tea Cess Act, 1903 (IX of 1903), in Burma on the separation of that country from India. It is felt that in view of the small income likely to result from any duty imposed on the comparatively unimportant tea exports from Burma and the fact that Burma is not represented on the Indian Tea Market Expansion Board, which administers the funds accruing from the duty imposed under the Act, continued application of the Act to Burma after separation is not only unnecessary but is likely to lead to considerable friction over the distribution of the Board's efforts as between India and Burma's teas.

It has accordingly been decided, in consultation with the tea industry in India and the Government of Burma, to exclude Burma from the operation of the Act. As under section 148 of the Government of Burma Act, 1935, all laws in force in Burma immediately before separation will continue in force there until altered or repealed or amended, it is necessary that the Indian Tea Cess Act should be amended before April 1, 1937, so as to exclude Burma from its scope.

The present Bill incorporates the amending legislation.

No. 2255J.—18th March 1937.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 112A of the Presidency-towns Insolvency Act, 1909 (III of 1909), as amended by the Presidency-towns Insolvency (Bengal Amendment) Act, 1936 (Bengal Act XVIII of 1936), and in supersession of all existing rules on the subject, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules for the proper performance of the administrative functions of the Official Assignee of Calcutta:—

1. The Official Assignee shall maintain a personal deposit account with the Reserve Bank of India entitled "The Account of the Official Assignee of Calcutta," and shall pass all moneys received by him in the administration of debtors' estates to the credit of the said account on the day of receipt, if possible, and in any case not later than on the morning of the next following day on which Bank is open.

2. The Official Assignee shall deposit with the Reserve Bank of India all securities or investments received by him in the administration of debtors' estates.

3. All moneys received by the Official Assignee in the administration of debtors' estates and in his hands or under his control at the date of the commencement of the Presidency-towns Insolvency (Bengal Amendment) Act, 1936, shall be deposited by the Official Assignee in the Reserve Bank of India to the credit of his personal deposit account on such date as the Local Government may fix.

4. All securities or investments received by the Official Assignee in the administration of debtors' estates and in his hands or under his control at the date of the commencement of the Presidency-towns Insolvency (Bengal Amendment) Act, 1936, shall be deposited by the Official Assignee in the Reserve Bank of India on such date as the Local Government may fix.

5. All moneys, securities or investments in the hands or under the control of the Official Assignee at the date of the commencement of the Presidency-towns Insolvency (Bengal Amendment) Act, 1936, representing the proceeds of investments of the assets of insolvent estates made prior to the date of the commencement of the said Act, shall, on such date as the Local Government may fix, be transferred by the Official Assignee to the Reserve Bank of India for credit to Provincial Revenues. Details of moneys, securities or investments so credited shall be furnished by the Official Assignee to the Local Government.

6. The Official Assignee shall ensure that the cash balance in his personal deposit account does not fall below a sum of Rs. 1½ lakhs.

7. When in the opinion of the Official Assignee the cash balance standing to the credit of his personal deposit account is in excess of the amount required for the time being to meet demands in respect of insolvent estates, or to make any payments prescribed by the Presidency-towns Insolvency Act, 1909, or by the rules framed thereunder, he shall request the Reserve Bank of India to invest such excess in the purchase of Government promissory notes, bonds or treasury bills in his name. Such notes, bonds or bills shall be kept in safe custody by the Bank.

Provided that moneys received by the Official Assignee as interim receiver or as trustee under a composition scheme shall not be invested.

8. The interests, dividends and proceeds of the investments referred to in the preceding rule shall be collected by the Reserve Bank of India, which shall, at the end of every half year, credit the same to the "Account of the Official Assignee of Calcutta," and shall intimate to the Official Assignee the details and total of the sum credited; and the Official Assignee shall forthwith withdraw from his personal deposit account and credit to Provincial Revenues all such interests, dividends and proceeds of investments.

Provided that the interests, dividends and proceeds of investments on account of insolvent estates, the assets of which have been directed by a Committee of Inspection to be invested pending further realisation and pending the declaration of dividends, shall stand credited to the accounts of those estates, and shall not be transferred to Provincial Revenues.

9. When in the opinion of the Official Assignee, the cash balance standing to the credit of his personal deposit account is insufficient to meet the requirements of insolvent estates, or to make any payments prescribed by the Presidency-towns Insolvency Act, 1909, he shall, in consultation with the Reserve Bank of India, arrange to realise such an amount of the securities or investments deposited with the Reserve Bank as may, in his opinion, be sufficient to provide the funds required.

10. The Official Assignee shall half-yearly submit to the Local Government for necessary action a statement of all securities or investments realised under the provisions of the preceding rule, showing details of the realised profit or actual loss resulting from such transactions.

11. For the purpose of meeting the costs and liabilities referred to in sections 82A and 82B of the Presidency-towns Insolvency Act, 1909, the Official Assignee shall, in the first instance, utilise the funds available in his personal deposit account, and shall thereafter apply to the Local Government, for recoupment in respect of such expenditure to the extent of the Local Government's liability as prescribed by sections 82A and 82B.

12. Subject to the rule next following the Official Assignee shall withdraw from his personal deposit account and shall pay into the Reserve Bank of India for credit to Provincial Revenues all sums realised under the provisions of section 82C of the Presidency-towns Insolvency Act, 1909.

13. The Official Assignee shall charge a percentage at the rate of 5 per cent. on the value of the realised assets of each insolvent estate, and a percentage at the rate of 1 per cent. on the value of assets taken charge of or realised by him as interim receiver. All fees, percentages, commissions and remunerations leviable by the Official Assignee under the said Act and these rules shall constitute a first charge upon the assets of every insolvent estate, and the Official Assignee shall every half year transfer such amounts from his personal deposit account to the credit of Provincial Revenues.

Provided that in no case shall a total percentage of more than 5 per cent. be charged upon any assets of any insolvent estate.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this rule, the amount to be paid in pursuance of a composition or scheme of arrangement, and also any amount realised under the Second Schedule to the Act, shall be deemed to be assets collected by the Official Assignee.

14. The Official Assignee shall maintain registers showing the dates of lapse under section 122 of the Presidency-towns Insolvency Act, 1909, of all dividends unclaimed for 15 years or for such less period as may be prescribed; and shall at the end of every half year, unless the Court otherwise directs, credit to Provincial Revenues all such lapsed unclaimed dividends, and shall furnish to the Accountant-General, Bengal, a detailed list of such credits.

15. For the purpose of paying dividends to creditors, or of making any other payments prescribed by the Presidency-towns Insolvency Act, 1909, or the rules framed thereunder, the Official Assignee shall issue cheques drawn upon his personal deposit account in respect of all amounts in excess of Rs. 50.

16. The Official Assignee shall, in the manner to be prescribed by the Local Government, keep accounts of the property, debts and credits of every insolvent, and of all moneys received and payments made by him. Scheduled creditors shall be at liberty to inspect the accounts of insolvent estates at all reasonable times.

17. The Official Assignee shall, at the end of every six months, submit to the Local Government a statement of accounts of each estate not then wound up and fully distributed. This statement shall show the total receipts, the total disbursements (distinguishing dividends from other payments), the balance in hand, and the manner in which any portion of this balance is invested.

18. The accounts of the Official Assignee, and also the statement of accounts referred to in the preceding rule, shall be audited half-yearly, up to the 31st day of January and the 31st day of July, by such auditors, at such time and place, and in such manner as the Local Government shall direct; and a report of each audit shall be furnished to the Official Assignee and to the Local Government.

19. On completion of each audit, the audited statement of accounts referred to in rule 17 shall be signed by the auditor and by the Official Assignee, and shall be published forthwith in the Calcutta Gazette.

20. The Official Assignee shall on appointment enter into a bond with sufficient sureties to the Local Government in the sum of Rs. 1,00,000 conditioned for the clear execution of his office.

The test will be for half an hour, and the paper will be marked on the basis of a penalty of five words for every mistake, which comprises mis-spelling, wrong spacing, wrong paragraphing, one letter typed over another, etc. The manuscript will be such as is used in ordinary Government correspondence, and the maximum percentage of errors permissible shall not be more than 5 per cent.; and

(iv) his age is less than 25 years on the 1st August of the year in which the examination is advertised to be held: provided that if he is already a temporary typist in the Secretariat, he shall be eligible if his age on that date does not exceed 25 years by more than the length of his temporary service.

(c) All vacancies for typists, permanent or temporary, shall be reported to the Finance Department as they occur.

(d) Permanent posts of typists shall, subject to the provisions of section 56D, be filled by the appointment, in order of merit, of candidates who have passed the recruitment examination. Temporary posts shall be filled by the appointment of candidates who have passed the recruitment examination but are not sufficiently high in order of merit to obtain permanent posts.

(e) A fresh examination shall not ordinarily be held until the list of candidates who have passed the previous recruitment examination is exhausted, or until three years have elapsed since the previous examination, whichever is earlier. The Finance Department may, however, if it considers it expedient to do so, decide that a fresh examination shall be held at any earlier date.

56A. The recruitment of stenographers is regulated by the following instructions:—

(a) An examination will be held from time to time for the purpose of preparing a list of candidates eligible for appointment as stenographers.

(b) In the case of a person not in the permanent service of Government, the qualifications for admission to the examination shall be as follows:—

(i) He must have passed at least the Matriculation Examination of an Indian University, the High Madrasah Examination or the High School Examination of the Board of Intermediate and Secondary Education, Dacca, the School Final Examination (Science Side) or the Government Commercial Course Final Examination, or have obtained the Indian Army Special Certificate of Education, or if a European or Anglo-Indian not so qualified, have obtained at least the Elementary School Certificate and taken the Supplementary Commercial Course prescribed by the European Schools Code.

(ii) He must be able to produce evidence that he possesses a good knowledge of English.

(iv) He must be less than 25 years of age on the 1st August of the year in which the examination is advertised to be held.

Evidence that the candidate possesses the above qualifications must accompany the application. As evidence of age, candidates must produce a Matriculation Certificate, or failing this, equally satisfactory documentary proof. All certificates must be sent in original. The candidate must also pay into the treasury nearest his place of residence, a sum of Rs. 10 by way of examination fee, and must forward the treasury receipt with his application. Under no circumstances will this sum be refunded.

(c) A person already in the permanent service of the Local Government will be allowed to sit for the examination provided he applies for permission through the Head of his Office and provided the Head of his Office certifies that in his opinion, the candidate has, by attending evening classes or otherwise, fitted himself for a post of stenographer. In the case of such a person there will be no age-limit and no examination fee will be required.

(d) On the results of the examination a list shall be prepared showing, in order of merit, those candidates who are deemed to have proved themselves fit for appointment as stenographers in the Secretariat.

(e) Officiating or temporary vacancies in posts of stenographers in the Secretariat will be filled, as they occur, by the appointment of candidates from this list. Employment will be offered to candidates strictly in the order of merit in which they appear in the list: provided—

(i) that every alternate vacancy shall, so long as any typist in the permanent employment of Government appear in the list, be filled by one of them;

(ii) that one in every two of the vacancies not filled by typists shall go to a Muhammadan so long as any such appear in the list. This rule, however, should not be interpreted to exclude from any vacancy a permanent typist or a Muhammadan who stands highest among those candidates on the list who have not been given appointments. Government may, at their discretion, reject any candidate whom they consider unsuitable for service under Government.

(f) A fresh examination will ordinarily not be held until the list of candidates of the previous examination prepared under clause (c) has been exhausted or until three years have elapsed since the date of the previous examination, whichever is earlier. The Finance Department may, however, if it considers it expedient to do so, decide that a fresh examination should be held at any earlier date.

56B. (1) The Legislative Council Department will hold an annual proficiency examination, which must be attended by all permanent or acting Council Reporters and all permanent stenographers in the Secretariat and may be attended by all persons who have been employed during the year in officiating or temporary vacancies in posts of stenographers in the Secretariat.

(2) This annual examination will be organised in two parts, namely:—

- (i) Dictation at a minimum rate of 140 words per minute.
- (ii) Dictation at a minimum rate of 120 words per minute.

Each test will comprise two periods of dictation each of seven minutes' duration, followed by one hour's transcription of notes, and separated by an interval of at least half an hour for rest. One period will consist of dictation at approximately the minimum speed, the other of dictation at speeds varying from the minimum to a pre-determined maximum. The two tests will ordinarily be held on separate days.

(3) This annual proficiency examination will be utilised for determining whether Council Reporters and stenographers have attained or maintained the various standards of efficiency prescribed in sections 52 and 54. All Council Reporters, those stenographers wishing to establish the attainment of the standard required for appointment as Council Reporters and stenographers in Class A of the old or who have passed the efficiency bar after the 16th stage in the revised scale, must appear at test (i). All other persons who are required or permitted to present themselves for the examination must enter for test (ii) and may enter for test (i).

(4) This examination will also be utilised for selecting stenographers to be appointed in a permanent or acting capacity in posts of Council Reporters or to be promoted in a permanent or acting capacity from a post of Junior Council Reporter to one of Senior Council Reporter in the old scale. Such permanent or acting appointments and promotions will be given to those Council Reporters or stenographers who have attained at the annual examinations the standards of proficiency prescribed in section 54. As among those who prove the attainment of the standards, appointments will be given in strict order of merit as decided at the annual examinations but in arriving at such order of merit, the average results in the examinations of the preceding three years should be taken into account.

56C. Permanent vacancies in posts of stenographers in the Secretariat shall be filled by the appointment of persons who have been passed as eligible for appointment as stenographers at the recruitment examination prescribed in section 56A and have been employed in officiating or temporary vacancies in posts of stenographers in the Secretariat. Appointments will be made in strict order of merit as decided at the annual proficiency examinations prescribed in section 56B, the average results in the examinations of the preceding three years being taken into account: provided that

- (i) every alternate vacancy shall be given to a permanent typist, and
- (ii) one in every two of the vacancies not filled by permanent typists shall be given to a Muhammadan, so long as there are any permanent typist or Muhammadans who have passed the recruitment examination prescribed in section 56A, acting as temporary stenographers. As between two or more persons, the appointment will be given to the persons standing highest according to the results of the annual proficiency examinations, taking the average results in the examinations of the preceding three years into account. This rule should not be interpreted to exclude from any permanent vacancy in a post of stenographer, a permanent typist or a Muhammadan who, taking the average results in the proficiency examinations of the preceding three years into account stands first of the temporary stenographers not already provided with permanent posts.

If there is no temporary stenographer available, the first available person in order of merit, subject to the provisions of rule 56A(e), in the list of candidates passed as eligible for appointment as stenographers at the last recruitment examination, may be appointed permanently to a vacant post of stenographer.

56D. (i) Every third appointment of typist in each office shall ordinarily be given to a Muhammadan who has passed the recruitment examination prescribed in section 56.

(ii) Until the proportion of Muhammadan typists in the various offices reaches one-third, the claims of qualified Muhammadan candidates shall be considered in filling up all vacancies.

(iii) The claims of members of the minority communities and backward classes who have passed the recruitment examination prescribed in section 56, shall also be considered in filling vacancies in posts of typists".

The Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Uncovenanted service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the fund are (1) that widowed daughters incapable of re-marriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominee predecease them after five years of admission. The second quinquennial valuation of the Fund has been completed by the Actuary to the Government of India, and his report discloses very favourable results. Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly, and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill* was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 1st February, 1937:—

L. A. BILL No. 6 of 1937.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, for certain purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, for the purposes hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Indian Income-tax (Amendment) Act, 1937.

Amendment of section 16, Act XI of 1922.

2. To section 16 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922 XI of 1922. (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), the following sub-section shall be added, namely:—

“(3) In computing the total income of any individual for the purpose of assessment, there shall be included—

(a) so much of the income of a wife or minor child of such individual as arises—

(i) from the membership of the wife in a firm of which her husband is a partner;

(ii) from the admission of the minor to the benefits of partnership in a firm of which such individual is a partner;

*The Governor General has been pleased to accord the sanction required by section 67 (2) of the Government of India Act.

- (iii) from assets transferred directly or indirectly to the wife by the husband otherwise than for adequate consideration or in connection with an agreement to live apart; or
- (iv) from assets transferred directly or indirectly to the minor child, not being a married daughter, by such individual:

and

- (b) so much of the income of any association of individuals consisting of such individual and his wife as arises from assets transferred to the association by such individual."

Amendment
of section 18,
Act XI of

3. To sub-section (5) of section 18 of the said Act the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

"Provided further that where such person or owner is a person whose income is included under the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 16 in the total income of another person that person shall be deemed to be the person or owner on whose behalf payment has been made and to whom credit shall be given in the assessment for the following year."

Amendment
of section 48,
Act XI of

4. After sub-section (3) of section 48 of the said Act the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

"(3A) Where the shareholder referred to in sub-section (1), or the member of a registered firm or the minor admitted to the benefits of partnership referred to in sub-section (2), or the owner of a security referred to in sub-section (3) is a person whose income is included under the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 16 in the total income of another person, the provisions of sub-sections (1), (2) and (3) shall apply as if that person were himself the person entitled to a refund under those sub-sections."

Operation of section 2.

5. The amendment made in the said Act by section 2 shall not have effect in respect of any income chargeable to income-tax for any year ending before the 1st day of April, 1937.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Reference is made in sections 1 and 4 of Chapter III of the Income Tax Enquiry Report, 1936, to the practices of avoiding taxation by means of nominal partnerships between husband and wife or parent and minor child or by the nominal transfer of assets to a wife or minor child (or to an "association" consisting of husband and wife) when there is no substantial separation of the interests of the assessee and the wife or child. These practices are reported to have become very widespread already, with considerable detriment to the revenue, and there is little doubt that if they are not checked there will be progressive deterioration. The proposals in the Report regarding the aggregation of the incomes of husband and wife go beyond the immediate necessities of the case and to that extent their adoption would involve the admission of a new principle which the Government of India do not desire to establish in advance of the general public discussion of the Report which has been arranged; and the present Bill has been so drafted as to deal only with the abuses to which I have referred.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill* was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 8th February, 1937:—

L. A. BILL No. 7 OF 1937.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Naval Armament Act, 1923, for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Naval Armament Act, 1923, for the purpose of giving effect in British India to the Treaty for the Limitation of Naval Armament and for the Exchange of Information concerning Naval Construction signed in London on behalf of His Majesty on the twenty-fifth day of March, 1936; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Indian Naval Armament (Amendment) Act, 1937.

Amendment of preamble to Act VII of 1923.

2. In the preamble to the Indian Naval Armament Act, 1923 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), for the words beginning "Treaty for the Limitation of Naval Armament signed at Washington" and ending "signed at London on behalf of His Majesty on the twenty-second day of April, 1930" the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"Treaty for the Limitation of Naval Armament and for the Exchange of Information concerning Naval Construction signed in London on behalf of His Majesty on the twenty-fifth day of March, 1936".

Amendment of section 2, Act VII of 1923.

3. In section 2 of the said Act, for clause (c) the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

"(c) 'the Treaty' means the Treaty for the Limitation of Naval Armament and for the Exchange of Information concerning Naval Construction signed in London on behalf of His Majesty on the twenty-fifth day of March, 1936."

Amendment of section 4, Act VII of 1923.

4. To section 4 of the said Act the following sub-section shall be added, namely:—

"(3) Any person who, in pursuance of a licence granted under sub-section (1) before the commencement of the Indian Naval Armament (Amendment) Act, 1937, is engaged in building any vessel of war or in altering, arming or equipping any ship so as to adapt her for use as a vessel of war, or is about to despatch or deliver, or allow to be despatched or delivered, from any place within British India any ship which has been so built, altered, armed or equipped, either entirely or partly, within British India, shall, upon written demand, furnish to the Local Government such designs and particulars as may be required by the Local Government for the purpose of securing the observance of the obligations imposed by the Treaty."

Amendment of section 5, Act VII of 1923.

5. In sub-section (1) of section 5 of the said Act, after the word and figure "section 3" the following shall be inserted, namely:—

"or fails to comply with the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 4".

Omission of the Schedule to Act VII of 1923.

6. The Schedule to the said Act shall be omitted.

*The Governor General has been pleased to accord the sanction required by section 87 (2) of the Government of India Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Indian Naval Armament Act, 1923 (VII of 1923), as amended by Act VIII of 1931, was passed by the Indian Legislature to give effect in British India to the Treaties for the Limitation of Naval Armaments signed on behalf of His Majesty in 1922 and 1930. These Treaties—except for Part IV of the latter—expired on the 31st December 1936, and Act VII of 1923 will consequently cease to have effect unless it is so amended as to substitute reference to the Treaty signed on behalf of the British Commonwealth of Nations and certain other Powers on the 25th March 1936, for the references to the Treaties of 1922 and 1930. The chief characteristics of the Treaty which came into force on the 1st January 1937, and which will remain operative until the 31st December 1942, are limitation in the tonnage of ships and in the calibre of guns and certain new provisions regarding the exchange of information concerning naval construction between the High Contracting Parties. It also keeps alive the principle which has prevailed for the last fifteen years that the naval armaments of the principal Maritime Powers are to be restricted by agreement and makes it possible for the reduction of naval armaments to be further extended when international conditions are more settled than they were when the Treaty was contracted.

The Government of India have agreed to ratify the new Treaty of 1936 and, to give effect to it, they propose to amend the Indian Naval Armament Act (VII of 1923) on the lines of the amendment recently made in the corresponding English Act.

6. Where the information in question is in the nature of a complaint by a person or body charging the Practitioner with infamous conduct in a professional respect, such complaint shall be made in writing addressed to the Registrar, and shall state the grounds of complaint and shall be accompanied by one or more declarations as to the facts of the case except when the complaint is by a Government Department.

7. Every declaration must state the description and true place of abode of the declarant, and where the fact stated in a declaration is not within the personal knowledge of the declarant, the source of the information and grounds for the belief of the declarant in its truth must be accurately and fully stated.

8. (1) The abstract and all other documents bearing on the case together with any complaint that may have been lodged shall be submitted by the Registrar to the President, who shall, if he thinks fit, instruct the Registrar to ask the Practitioner by means of a registered letter for an explanation within a time to be fixed by the President. After the expiry of that time the documents with the explanation, if any, shall be referred for consideration to a Penal Cases Committee which shall be appointed by the Council. The Committee shall have power to cause further investigation to be made and further evidence to be taken and, if necessary, obtain further legal or other advice.

(2) The Committee shall report to the Council, and if the Council consider that the case is one in which an enquiry ought to be held by the Council, the President shall direct the Registrar to take steps for the institution of an enquiry and for having the case heard and determined by the Council.

9. The enquiry shall be instituted by the issue of a notice in writing, on behalf of the Council, by the Registrar, addressed to the Practitioner. Such notice shall specify the nature and particulars of the charge, shall inform the Practitioner of the day on which the Council intend to deal with the case, and shall call upon him to answer the charge in writing and to attend before the Council on that day.

It shall be sent at least twenty-one days before the date of the enquiry, and shall be accompanied by a copy of section 17 or 24 of the Statutes, as the case may be, and of the rules to regulate the procedure for conducting any enquiry referred to in those sections. A copy of the notice should at the same time be sent to the complainant, if any.

11. In every case in which the Council resolve that an enquiry shall be instituted and a notice for an enquiry is issued accordingly, the complainant (if any) and the Ayurvedic Practitioner charged shall, upon request in writing for that purpose signed by him or his legal representative, be entitled to be supplied by the Registrar with a copy of any declaration, explanation, answer or other document given or sent to the Council by or on behalf of the other party, which such other party will be entitled on proper proof to use at the hearing as evidence in support of or in answer to the charge specified in the notice of enquiry.

12. Any application made by the Ayurvedic Practitioner between the date of issue of the notice and the day named for the hearing of the charge shall be dealt with by the President in such manner as he shall think fit.

13. Copies of all material documents which are to be laid before the Council as evidence in regard to the case shall be furnished to each member of the Council before the hearing of the case.

14. At the hearing of the case by the Council, the complainant and also the Practitioner may be represented or assisted by a legal representative.

- (4) At the conclusion of the Practitioner's case, the Council will, if the Practitioner has produced evidence, hear the complainant in reply on the case generally, but will hear no further evidence except in any special case in which the Council may think it right to receive such further evidence. If the Practitioner produces no evidence, the complainant will not be heard in reply, except by special leave of the Council.

- (5) Where a witness is produced by any party before the Council, he will be first examined by the party producing him, and then cross-examined by the adverse party, and then re-examined by the party producing him. The Council may decline to admit in evidence any declaration where the declarant is not present for, or declines to submit to, cross-examination.
- (6) The Chairman of the meeting may put questions to any witness, and members of the Council, through the Chairman, may also put questions to any witness.

16. Where there is no complainant, or no complainant appears, the order of procedure shall be as follows:—

- (1) The Registrar will read to the Council the notice of enquiry addressed to the Practitioner and will state the facts of the case and produce before the Council the evidence by which it is supported.
- (2) The Practitioner will then be invited to state his case himself or by his legal representative, and to produce his proofs in support of it. He may address the Council either before or at the conclusion of his proofs, but only once.

17. (1) Upon the conclusion of the case the Council will deliberate thereon in private, and at the conclusion of the deliberations the Chairman shall call upon the Council to vote on the question whether the Ayurvedic Practitioner charged is guilty of infamous conduct in a professional respect.

(2) If the Council, by a majority of two-thirds of the members present and voting at the meeting, find the Ayurvedic Practitioner guilty of infamous conduct in a professional respect, the Council shall direct the Registrar not to register his name, if he be an applicant for registration or to remove his name from the Register of Registered Ayurvedic Practitioners, if he is already a Registered Ayurvedic Practitioner or to warn or to censure him.

18. When the registration of the name of any Ayurvedic Practitioner is refused, or when the name of any Registered Ayurvedic Practitioner is removed from the Register in accordance with the provisions of the preceding rules, the Registrar shall forthwith send notice of such refusal or removal to the Practitioner, by a registered letter addressed to his last known address. The Registrar shall also send, forthwith, intimation of any such refusal or removal to the body or bodies from whom the Practitioner received his qualification or qualifications, and shall request them not to admit him without previous reference to the Council to any examination for any new qualification which is registrable in the Register of Registered Ayurvedic Practitioners. ## Miscellaneous.

RESOLUTION—No. 4787MISC.

Calcutta, the 3rd March 1937.

In 1934, the Governor in Council accepted the recommendation of the special committee appointed to examine the future administration of the district of Noakhali that the headquarters of the district should be moved to Maijdi. The move was, however, postponed as the conditions at Noakhali appeared to be improving and it was hoped that it might be unnecessary to move the headquarters of the district. Although there are indications that the main stream of the Meghna has temporarily ceased to be so active in the immediate vicinity of the town, conditions during high tides, when the town is inundated, are, in the opinion of the Governor in Council, such that it is necessary that effect should now be given to the previous decision to move the headquarters of the district, and he has decided that Maijdi shall be declared immediately the permanent headquarters of the Noakhali district, and that steps are to be taken to remove the headquarters to that place at an early date.

Ordered that a copy of this resolution be published in the Calcutta Gazette for general information.

By order the Governor in Council,

J. B. KINDERSLEY,

Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal (offg.).

Storage of Carbide.

20. Carbide to be "commercially pure".—No carbide shall be kept at any place, with or without a licence, unless it is "commercially pure", that is, unless it contains no impurities which would render the gas evolved, either alone or in admixture with air, liable to ignite spontaneously.

21. Licence for storage.—(1) No person shall store any carbide except under a licence granted under these rules :

Provided that no licence shall be required for the storage of carbide—

- (i) in any quantity not exceeding five pounds if it is kept in prescribed receptacles each containing not more than one pound;
- (ii) in any quantity exceeding five and not exceeding twenty-eight pounds if it is kept in prescribed receptacles and the following conditions are observed :—
  - (a) the receptacles shall be stored in a dry and well ventilated place;
  - (b) due precautions shall be taken to prevent unauthorized persons from having access to the carbide;
  - (c) notice shall be given of such storage to the District Authority; and
  - (d) where a fixed generator is used on the premises, detailed instructions as to the care and use of the generator shall be kept constantly posted up in a place where they can conveniently be referred to by the generator attendant.

(2) No licence shall be required for the temporary storage of carbide within port limits under such conditions as the Conservator of the Port may specify.

- (a) if in quantities aggregating not more than 500 pounds—in a suitable uninhabited building at least 20 feet away from any other premises: provided that quantities not exceeding 250 pounds may be stored in a place connected with a shop at a distance not less than 10 feet from any other premises;

- (a) constructed of non-inflammable material, with non-inflammable roofs and with tiled, paved, cemented, iron or steel floors raised at least a foot above the ground level; and
- (b) well ventilated and water-tight to the satisfaction of the licensing authority.

If deep water is not available, the wet carbide shall be spread out in the open in an isolated position, and all precautions shall be taken to prevent any fire or artificial light or article capable of igniting acetylene being brought near until the material has given off all its gas.

NOTE.—The fact of carbide having become wet will be indicated by the outward appearance of the drum, and probably by a disagreeable odour, showing a leakage of gas.

27. Precautions by vendor.—(1) Every vendor of carbide delivering any quantity exceeding half a pound to any person, shall deliver it to him in a prescribed receptacle.

(2) No vendor shall open more than one receptacle at a time for the purpose of delivering carbide.

28. Children.—No person under the age of 15 years shall be employed in or allowed to enter any premises licensed under these rules.

CHAPTER V.

Manufacture of Acetylene Gas.

29. Application of Chapter.—(1) The rules in this Chapter shall be observed by every person holding a licence for the storage of carbide granted under these rules who uses such carbide for the manufacture of acetylene gas.

(2) In this Chapter, apparatus means any appliance for the manufacture of acetylene gas, including all generators and gas-holders and the devices for preventing the passage of oxygen into the acetylene supply pipes, the pipe lines and the other fittings.

30. Construction of apparatus.—(1) The apparatus shall be so constructed that lime sludge cannot gain access to any pipes intended for the passage of gas or the circulation of water.

(2) The use of glass in water gauges, sight boxes, etc., shall be avoided, but where glass is absolutely necessary as part of the apparatus it shall be effectively protected against fracture.

(3) The apparatus shall be so constructed that it is not possible, even by incorrect manipulation of cocks, to seal the generating chamber hermetically.

(4) The air-space in a generator shall be as small as is consistent with the proper working of the apparatus.

(5) No metal containing more than 80 per cent. of copper shall be present in any portion of the apparatus excluding the nozzles of the blow pipes.

(6) The various parts of the apparatus shall be of adequate strength to withstand any pressures that may be generated therein.

(7) The size of the pipes carrying the gas shall be proportioned to the maximum rate of generation, so that undue back pressure from throttling may not occur.

31. Efficiency of apparatus.—The apparatus shall have an efficiency of at least 90 per cent.

32. Temperature of apparatus.—The temperature of any part of the apparatus, when working, shall not exceed 180°F.

NOTE.—The temperature may be ascertained by placing short lengths of wire, drawn from fusible metal of a suitable melting point in those parts of the apparatus in which heat is liable to be generated.

33. Pressure.—(1) The apparatus used shall not be made to work at a pressure exceeding 60 inches water column :

Provided that, if it be shown to the satisfaction of the licensing authority that a higher pressure is necessary in any generating apparatus and that such higher pressure may be used without danger, the licensing authority may allow the use of higher pressure up to a maximum of 250 inches water column on the condition that the apparatus is fitted with suitable safety devices. A generator operating at a higher pressure than 60 inches water column shall have clearly marked on it the water column at which it works.

(2) In the use of the apparatus, regard shall be had to the danger of stoppage of passage of the gas and a consequent increase of pressure.

34. Precautions against escape of gas.—(1) Adequate precautions shall be taken to prevent any escape of gas from the apparatus.

(2) Gas-holders shall be fitted with blow off pipes carried up to a suitable point in the open air.

35. Decomposition of carbide.—(1) The carbide shall be completely decomposed in the apparatus, so that the lime sludge discharged therefrom shall not be capable of generating more gas.

(2) The apparatus shall give no tarry or other heavy condensation products from the decomposition of the carbide.

36. Residue.—(1) An open tank shall be provided in the open air for the reception of all residue from the carbide : and such residue shall remain for at least ten hours in not less than four times its bulk of water in such tank.

(2) Precautions shall be adopted for preventing any lime sludge from being discharged into the drains.

37. Attendants.—(1) No person shall have charge of an apparatus until he has been properly instructed in its management.

(2) A label or printed card giving fully detailed instructions in the vernacular as to the use of the apparatus and a certificate by the licensee to the effect that the attendant who shall be mentioned by name has been properly instructed as required by sub-rule (1), shall be exhibited on or in close proximity to the apparatus.

CHAPTER VI.

Licences.

38. Application for licence.—A person wishing to obtain or to renew a licence to store carbide under these rules shall submit an application in Form A to the authority empowered under rule 39 to grant such licence.

39. Grant of licence.—(1) Licences for storage may be granted by the licensing authorities set forth in Schedule I appended to these rules, in the Forms, for the purposes, and on payment of the fees, specified therein.

(2) Every licence granted or renewed under these rules shall remain in force until the 31st day of December of the year for which the licence is granted or renewed.

40. Particulars of licence.—Every licence granted under these rules shall be held subject to the conditions endorsed on it and shall contain all the particulars which are contained in the form prescribed for it by these rules.

41. Power of licensing authority to alter conditions.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 40, the licensing authority may omit, alter or add to any of the conditions specified in the prescribed form of licence.

(2) This power shall not be exercised by the District Authority without the prior concurrence of the Chief Inspector.

42. Amendment of licence.—(1) Any licence granted under these rules may be amended by the authority granting such a licence provided that the amendments are not in conflict with any of these rules.

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly, and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 19th February, 1937:—

L. A. BILL NO. 11 OF 1937.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Limitation Act, 1908, for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Limitation Act, 1908, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

IX of 1908.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Indian Limitation (Amendment) Act, 1937.

Amendment of Article 149, First Schedule to Act IX of 1908.

2. In Article 149 in the First Division of the First Schedule to the Indian Limitation Act, 1908, to the entry in the first column the following words shall be added, namely:—

IX of 1908.

“except a suit before the Federal Court in the exercise of its original jurisdiction”.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Article 149 of the Indian Limitation Act, 1908 (IX of 1908), prescribes a special period of limitation of 60 years for any suit by or on behalf of the Secretary of State for India in Council. This Article will in future govern suits by a Province against a Province or between a Province and the Federation. The reasons which justify a specially long period of limitation for suits by the Crown against a private person hardly seen, applicable where both parties represent the Crown. It is, therefore, necessary to amend the Article by excluding from its scope suits brought before the Federal Court in the exercise of its original jurisdiction.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill* was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 19th February, 1937:—

L. A. BILL No. 13 OF 1937.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Army Act, 1911, for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Army Act, 1911, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

VIII of 1911.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Indian Army (Amendment) Act, 1937.

Amendment of section 2, Act VIII of 1911.

2. In section 2 of the Indian Army Act, 1911,— VIII of 1911.
(a) to clause (a) of sub-section (1) the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

“Provided that a person holding a commission in the Army in India Reserve of Officers shall be so subject only when ordered on any duty or service for which he is liable as a member of such reserve force.”: and

(b) to sub-section (2) the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

“Provided that an officer of the Indian Land Forces retired therefrom and appointed to the Indian Regular Reserve of Officers shall again become so subject when ordered on any duty or service for which he is liable as a member of such reserve force.”

*The Governor General has been pleased to accord the sanction required by section 67 (2) of the Government of India Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Under section 175 (9) of the Army Act, officers of the British wing of the Army in India Reserve of Officers are only subject to military law when called out in a military capacity. There is no corresponding provision in the Indian Army Act for officers in the Indian wing of the Army in India Reserve of Officers. It is proposed, therefore, to amend the Indian Army Act, 1911 (VIII of 1911), to put officers of the Indian wing in exactly the same position as officers in the British wing.

2. When Indian Commissioned Officers retire, they are liable under certain conditions to join the new Indian Regular Reserve. There is however no provision in the Indian Army Act for the subjection to military law of a retired officer who is in this Reserve. This defect is being remedied, but at the same time steps are being taken to ensure that such officers will only be subject to military law when ordered on any duty or service for which they are liable as members of the Reserve.

RESOLUTION—No. 7142L.R.

Calcutta, the 22nd March 1937.

Read—

The report of the Board of Revenue, Bengal, on the administration of the Wards, Attached and Trust Estates in the Presidency of Bengal for the year 1342 B.S. (1935-36).

1. At the beginning of the year under report the total number of estates under the management of the Court of Wards was 125. Seven new estates were brought under management of the Court and 3 estates were released during the year. Thus at the close of the year there were 129 estates in charge of the Court.

2. Out of the aggregate of Rs. 89,75,727 due to Government as revenue and cesses, a sum of Rs. 73,05,186 or 81·3 per cent. of the total was paid during the year, as against 80·2 per cent. in the previous year. The defaults accrued in heavily encumbered estates where the collections were insufficient to meet the pressing liabilities.

3. The total current demand due to the estates on account of rent and cesses was Rs. 183·92 lakhs and arrear demand Rs. 305·43 lakhs. The total sum collected was Rs. 171·68 lakhs representing 35·0 per cent. of the total demand or 93·3 per cent of the current demand against 34·8 per cent. and 95·4, respectively, in the preceding year. The fall in the percentage of collection in certain estates in Chittagong is attributed to the continuance of comparatively low prices in that district.

Though the collection in Kasimbazar Estate is still below the standard, there has been an improvement in the last two years with a resulting improvement in the general position of that estate.

4. The total amount of ascertained debts of the Court of Wards Estates in the Presidency at the close of the year under report stood at Rs. 2,89,41,124 against Rs. 3,39,69,781 in the preceding year. The principal repaid or otherwise reduced was Rs. 44,20,325 and the interest paid or otherwise reduced Rs. 17,18,584 as compared with Rs. 22,25,315 and Rs. 16,40,257, respectively, in the previous year.

5. The percentage of cost of management of the estates in the whole Presidency on their current rent and cess demand was 11·8 as against 9·7 of the preceding year. Law expenses rose from Rs. 10·60 lakhs in 1934-35 to Rs. 11·69 lakhs.

6. The total sum spent during the year under the heads Schools, dispensaries and works of improvement amounted to Rs. 5,52,269 against Rs. 5,83,122 in the preceding year.

7. The thanks of the Governor in Council are due to the Board of Revenue for the efficient administration of the estates under the management of the Court of Wards. He also notices with pleasure the work done by the Managers mentioned in the report.

Order.—Ordered that the resolution be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

By order of the Governor in Council,

J. B. KINDERSLEY,

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Dacca, the 23rd March 1937.

Forecast of the Rabi Crops of Bengal for 1936-37.

(Note.—On an average of the five years ending 1934-35, the area under summer rice in Bengal has represented some 0·4 per cent. of the total area under rice in British India.)

Character of the season.—Good rainfall in October facilitated the preparatory tillage for and sowing of the crops which commenced generally in the normal time. Subsequent dry weather since November proved helpful to the germination and growth of the crops. In the middle part of February heavy rainfall caused some damage to the crops especially in some districts of West and North Bengal. On the whole, the season has been a fairly favourable one for the crops this year.

Acreage.—The normal area under the different rabi crops dealt with in this forecast is estimated at 3,518,000 acres. The area actually sown this year is reported to be 3,221,800 acres as against 3,036,400 acres last year. Of this, the area under summer rice is reported at 432,300 acres as against 403,700 acres last year and that under tobacco is 307,300 acres as against 307,100 acres last year.

Outturn.—According to District Officers' estimates, the average outturn of the different rabi crops for the province, as a whole, works out at 84 per cent. of the normal as against 76 per cent. last year, the outturn for the more important rabi districts being as follows:—

Mymensingh 100, Dacca 80, Rangpur 90, Murshidabad 76, Faridpur 82, Pabna 79, Noakhali 75, Rajshahi 78, Bakarganj 100, Tippera 70, Nadia 66, Jalpaiguri 84, Malda 80, Bogra 75, Jessore 58 and Khulna 80.

Summer rice and tobacco crops.—The outturn of summer (boro) rice, according to District Officers' estimates, is 92 per cent. of the normal as against 85 per cent. last year. The gross yield of the crop for the province on a basis of the normal yield of 15 maunds of clean rice per acre is estimated at 219,200 tons this year as against 189,100 tons last year.

The outturn of tobacco crop is estimated at 88 per cent. of the normal as against 79 per cent. last year. Taking 14½ maunds as the normal yield of the crop per acre, the gross yield of the crop for the province this year is estimated at 144,000 tons as against 129,200 tons last year.

Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

INDIA.

INSTRUCTIONS passed under the Royal Sign Manual and Signet to the Governor of Bengal.

Dated 8th March 1937.

GEORGE R. I.

INSTRUCTIONS to Our Governor for the time being of Bengal.

GIVEN at Our Court at Buckingham Palace the Eighth day of March 1937 in the First year of Our Reign.

WHEREAS by Letters Patent bearing date the Fifth day of March Nineteen hundred and thirty-seven We have made permanent provision for the Office of Governor of Bengal:

AND WHEREAS by those Letters Patent and by the Act of Parliament passed on the second day of August, Nineteen hundred and thirty-five and entitled the Government of India Act, 1935 (hereinafter called "the Act"), certain powers, functions and authority for the government of the Province of Bengal are declared to be vested in the Governor as Our Representative:

AND WHEREAS, without prejudice to the provision in the Act that in certain regards therein specified the Governor shall act according to instructions received from time to time from Our Governor-General, and to the duty of Our Governor to give effect to instructions so received, We are minded to make general provision regarding the due manner in which Our said Governor shall execute all things which, according to the Act and the said Letters Patent, belong to his Office, and to the trust which We have reposed in him:

AND WHEREAS a draft of these Instructions has been laid before Parliament in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) of section fifty-three of the Act and an Address has been presented to Us by both Houses of Parliament praying that instructions may be issued in the terms of these Instructions:

Now, THEREFORE, We do by these Our Instructions under Our Sign Manual and Signet declare Our pleasure to be as follows:—

A.—INTRODUCTORY.

I. Under these Our Instructions, unless the context otherwise require, the term "Governor" shall include every person for the time being acting as Governor according to the provisions of the Act.

II. Our Governor for the time being shall, with all due solemnity, cause Our Commission under Our Sign Manual appointing him to be read and published in the presence of the Chief Justice for the time being, or, in his absence, other Judge, of the High Court of the Province.

III. Our said Governor shall take the oath of allegiance and the oath for the due execution of the Office of Our Governor of Bengal, and for the due and impartial administration of justice, in the form hereto appended, which oaths the Chief Justice for the time being, or in his absence any Judge, of the High Court, shall, and he is hereby required to, tender and administer unto him.

IV. And We do authorise and require Our Governor, by himself or by any other person to be authorised by him in that behalf, to administer to every person appointed by him to hold office as a member of the Council of Ministers the oaths of office and of secrecy hereto appended.

V. And We do further direct that every person who under these Instructions shall be required to take an oath may make an affirmation in place of an oath if he has any objection to making an oath.

VI. And whereas great prejudice may happen to Our service by the absence of Our Governor, he shall not quit India during his term of office without having first obtained leave from Us under Our Sign Manual or through one of Our Principal Secretaries of State.

B.—IN REGARD TO THE EXECUTIVE AUTHORITY OF THE PROVINCE.

VII. In making appointments to his Council of Ministers Our Governor shall use his best endeavours to select his Ministers in the following manner, that is to say, to appoint in consultation with the person who in his judgment is most likely to command a stable majority in the Legislature those persons (including so far as practicable members of important minority communities) who will best be in a position collectively to command the confidence of the Legislature. In so acting, he shall bear constantly in mind the need for fostering a sense of joint responsibility among his Ministers.

VIII. In all matters within the scope of the executive authority of the Province, save in relation to functions which he is required by or under the Act to exercise in his discretion, Our Governor shall in the exercise of the powers conferred upon him be guided by the advice of his Ministers, unless in his opinion so to be guided would be inconsistent with the fulfilment of any of the special responsibilities which are by the Act committed to him, or with the proper discharge of any of the functions which he is otherwise by or under the Act required to exercise in his individual judgment: in any of which cases Our Governor shall, notwithstanding his Ministers' advice, act in exercise of the powers by or under the Act conferred upon him in such manner as to his individual judgment seems requisite for the due discharge of the responsibilities and functions aforesaid. But he shall be studious so to exercise his powers as not to enable his Ministers to rely upon his special responsibilities in order to relieve themselves of responsibilities which are properly their own.

IX. Our Governor shall interpret his special responsibility for the safeguarding of the legitimate interests of minorities as requiring him to secure, in general, that those racial or religious communities for the members of which special representation is accorded in the Legislature, and those classes of the people committed to his charge who, whether on account of the smallness of their number or their primitive condition or their lack of educational or material advantages or from any other cause, cannot as yet fully rely for their welfare upon joint political action in the Legislature, shall not suffer, or have reasonable cause to fear, neglect or oppression. But he shall not regard as entitled to his protection any body of persons by reason only that they share a view on a particular question which has not found favour with the majority.

Further, Our Governor shall interpret the said special responsibility as requiring him to secure a due proportion of appointments in Our Services to the several communities, and, so far as there may be in his Province at the date of the issue of these Our Instructions an accepted policy in this regard, he shall be guided thereby, unless he is fully satisfied that modification of that policy is essential in the interests of the communities affected or of the welfare of the public.

X. In the discharge of his special responsibility for the securing to members of the public services of any rights provided for them by or under the Act and the safeguarding of their legitimate interests Our Governor shall be careful to safeguard the members of Our Services not only in any rights provided for them by or under the Act or any other law for the time being in force, but also against any action which, in his judgment, would be inequitable.

XI. The special responsibility of Our Governor for securing in the sphere of executive action any of the purposes which the provisions of Chapter III of Part V of the Act are designed to secure in relation to legislation shall be construed by him as requiring him to differ from his Ministers if in his individual judgment their advice would have effects of the kind which it is the purpose of the said Chapter to prevent, even though the advice so tendered to him is not in conflict with any specific provision of the Act.

XII. Our Governor shall construe his special responsibility for the protection of the rights of any Indian State as requiring him to see that no action shall be taken by his Ministers which would imperil the economic life of any State, or affect prejudicially any right of any State heretofore or hereafter recognised, whether derived from treaty, grant, usage, sufferance or otherwise: and he shall refer to Our Governor-General any questions which may arise as to the existence of any such right.

XIII. In the framing of rules for the regulation of the business of the Provincial Government Our Governor shall ensure that, amongst other provisions for the effective discharge of that business, due provision is made that the Finance Minister shall be consulted upon any proposal by any other Minister which affects the finances of the Province: and further that no reappropriation within a Grant shall be made by any Department other than the Finance Department, except in accordance with such rules as the Finance Minister may approve; and that in any case in which the Finance Minister does not concur in any such proposal the matter shall be brought for decision before the Council of Ministers. He shall further in those rules make due provision to secure that prompt attention is paid to any representation received by his Government from any minority.

XIV. Having regard to the powers conferred by the Act upon Our Secretary of State to appoint persons to Our service if, in his opinion, circumstances arise which render it necessary for him so to do in order to secure efficiency in irrigation, Our Governor shall make it his care to see that he is kept constantly supplied with information as to the conduct of irrigation in his Province in order that he may, if need be, place this information at the disposal of Our Governor-General.

XV. In the exercise of the powers by law conferred upon him in relation to the administration of areas declared under the Act to be Excluded or Partially Excluded Areas, or to the discharge of his special responsibility for the safeguarding of the legitimate interests of minorities, Our Governor shall, if he thinks this course would enable him the better to discharge his duties to the inhabitants of those areas or to primitive sections of the population elsewhere, appoint an officer with the duty of bringing their needs to his notice and advising him regarding measures for their welfare.

C.—MATTERS AFFECTING THE LEGISLATURE.

XVI. In determining whether he shall in Our name give his assent to, or withhold his assent from, any Bill Our Governor shall, without prejudice to the generality of his power to withhold his assent on any ground which appears to him in his discretion to render such action necessary or expedient, have particular regard to the bearing of the provisions of the Bill upon any of the special responsibilities imposed upon him by the Act.

XVII. Without prejudice to the generality of his powers as to reservation of Bills, Our Governor shall not assent in Our name to, but shall reserve for the consideration of Our Governor-General, any Bill of any of the classes herein specified, that is to say:—

- (a) any Bill the provisions of which would repeal or be repugnant to the provisions of any Act of Parliament extending to British India;
- (b) any Bill which in his opinion would, if it became law, so derogate from the powers of the High Court as to endanger the position which that Court is by the Act designed to fill;
- (c) any Bill regarding which he feels doubt whether it does, or does not, offend against the purposes of Chapter III of Part V or section 299 of the Act;
- (d) any Bill which would alter the character of the Permanent Settlement.

And in view of the provisions in this clause of these Our Instructions, it is Our will and pleasure that if his previous sanction is required under the Act to the introduction of any Bill of the last-mentioned description Our Governor shall not withhold that sanction to the introduction of the Bill.

XVIII. It is Our will that the power vested by the Act in Our Governor to stay proceedings upon a Bill, clause or amendment in the Provincial Legislature in the discharge of his special responsibility for the prevention of grave menace to peace and tranquillity shall not be exercised unless, in his judgment, the public discussion of the Bill, clause or amendment would itself endanger peace and tranquillity.

XIX. It is Our will and pleasure that the seats in the Legislative Council to be filled by the nomination of Our Governor shall be so apportioned as in general to redress, so far as may be, inequalities of representation which may have resulted from election, and in particular to secure representation for women and the Scheduled Castes in that Chamber.

D.—GENERAL.

XX. And generally Our Governor shall do all that in him lies to maintain standards of good administration; to promote all measures making for moral, social and economic welfare and tending to fit all classes of the population to take their due share in the public life and government of the Province; and to secure amongst all classes and creeds co-operation, goodwill and mutual respect for religious beliefs and sentiments; and he shall further have regard to this Instruction in the exercise of the powers by law conferred upon him in relation to matters whether of legislation or of executive government.

XXI. And We do hereby charge Our Governor to communicate these Our Instructions to his Ministers and to publish the same in his Province in such manner as he may think fit.

APPENDIX.

FORM OF OATH OF ALLEGIANCE.

I, _____; do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to His Majesty, King George the Sixth, Emperor of India, His Heirs and Successors, according to law.

So help me God.

FORM OF OATH OF OFFICE.

I, _____, do swear that I will well and truly serve Our Sovereign, King George the Sixth, Emperor of India, in the Office of _____, and that I will do right to all manner of people after the laws and usages of India, without fear or favour, affection or ill-will.

Submission of Bill clause by clause.

45. Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing orders, it shall be, in the discretion of the President when a motion that a Bill be taken into consideration has been carried, to submit the Bill, or any part of the Bill, to the Council clause by clause. When this procedure is adopted, the President shall call each clause separately, and, when the amendments relating to it have been dealt with, shall put the question "that this clause, or (as the case may be) this clause as amended, stand part of the Bill."

Passing of Bills.

46. (1) If no amendment be made when a motion that a Bill be taken into consideration has been agreed to by the Council, the Bill may at once be passed.

(2) If any amendment be made, any member may object to the passing of the Bill at the same meeting; and such objection shall prevail, unless the President in exercise of his powers to suspend this standing order allows the motion that the Bill be passed to be made.

(3) Where the objection prevails, the Bill shall be brought forward again at a future meeting; and may then be passed with or without further amendment.

[47. When a Bill is passed by the Council the Secretary shall, if necessary, renumber the clauses, revise and complete the marginal notes thereof and make such purely formal consequential amendments therein as may be required and a copy of the Bill shall be submitted to the President and shall be signed by him.

Formal revision of Bill and submission of it to President for authentication.

48. When a Bill, which has originated in the Council, has been passed by both Chambers of the Provincial Legislature, it shall be signed by the President and shall be submitted to the Governor for his assent, and, if assented to by him or by the Governor General or by His Majesty, it shall be published in the local official Gazette as an Act of the Bengal Legislature assented to by the Governor or the Governor General in the name of His Majesty or by His Majesty, as the case may be.

49. (1) When a Bill which has been passed is returned by the Governor to the Council for reconsideration, the point or points referred for reconsideration or the amendments recommended shall be put before the Council by the President and shall be discussed and voted upon in the same manner as amendments to a Bill or in such other way as the President may consider most convenient for their consideration by the Council.

Reconsideration of Bills returned by the Governor.

(2) An amendment may be moved at this stage notwithstanding that it raises a question substantially identical with one on which the Council has already given a decision in the same session.

[ (3) No amendments other than the amendments referred to the Council by the Governor shall be admissible at this stage.

50. The member in charge of a Bill may at any stage of the Bill move that the Bill be withdrawn, and, if such motion be carried, the Bill shall be withdrawn accordingly.

53. A member who wishes to move a resolution shall give twenty-one days' notice of his intention, and shall, together with the notice, submit a copy of the resolution which he wishes to move :

Notice of resolutions.

Provided that the President, with the consent of the Minister in charge of the Department concerned may allow a resolution to be entered on the list of business at shorter notice than twenty-one days :

Provided also that no member shall, unless he has obtained the special permission of the President, be permitted to send in notice of more than three resolutions during one session of the Council.

Restrictions on the form and contents of resolutions.

54. Subject to the restrictions contained in the rules and the provisions of the standing orders, any member may move a resolution relating to a matter of general public interest :

Provided that no resolution shall be admissible which does not comply with the following conditions, namely :—

- (a) it shall be clearly and precisely expressed and shall raise a definite issue ;
- (b) it shall not contain arguments, inferences, ironical expressions or defamatory statements, nor shall it refer to the conduct or character of persons except in their official or public capacity ; and
- (c) it shall not refer to any matter which is under adjudication by a court of law.

Procedure on motion to withdraw.

55. (1) A member in whose name a resolution appears on the list of business shall, when called on, either —

- (a) withdraw the resolution, in which case he shall confine himself to a mere statement to that effect, but may make such brief statement of his reasons for withdrawal as he may consider necessary ; or
- (b) move the resolution, in which case he shall commence his speech by a formal motion in the terms appearing in the list of business.

(2) If the member when called on is absent, the resolution standing in his name shall be considered to have been withdrawn :

Provided that the President in his discretion, may allow another member to move such resolution, or may postpone it.

Limits of discussions.

56. The discussion of a resolution shall be strictly limited to the subject of the resolution.

Amendments.

57. When a resolution is under discussion, any member may, subject to all the rules and orders relating to resolutions, move an amendment to such resolution.

Notice of amendment.

58. (1) If a copy of such amendment has not been sent to the Secretary seven days before the day fixed for the discussion of the resolution, any member may object to the moving of the amendment, and such objection shall prevail, unless the President in exercise of his power to suspend this order allows the amendment to be moved.

(2) The Secretary shall, if time permits, cause every amendment to be printed, and send a copy for the information of each member.

59. (1) The President may, if he thinks fit, allot the maximum limit of time which shall be available for the discussion of any resolution of a private member on any day allotted for the discussion of such resolutions.

Limitation of time of discussion of resolution.

(2) As soon as the maximum limit of time for discussion is reached, the President shall forthwith put every question necessary to dispose of the resolution under discussion.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (4) of standing order 28, the President may, in the case of any resolution for the discussion of which he has allotted the maximum time under sub-section (1), prescribe a time-limit for speeches shorter than that referred to in that standing order.

60. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2) of standing order 11, on the written requisition of not less than twenty-three members that a resolution be taken out of its turn on a day allotted for the discussion of resolutions of private members the resolution shall, with the consent of the President and the Minister in charge of the Department concerned, be given precedence on that day over all other resolutions for which a ballot has been held :

Procedure for taking a resolution out of turn.

Provided that not more than one resolution shall be given such precedence in any one session of the Council.

(2) If more than one such requisition is received in respect of any one day, and the consent required by sub-section (1) is obtained thereto, a special ballot shall be held in such manner as the President may direct to determine which of the resolutions specified in such requisitions shall be given precedence on that day.

(3) A resolution shall not have precedence under this Standing Order on any day unless the Minister concerned has received at least six days' notice, and the members at least twenty-four hours' notice, from the Secretary, that the resolution will be given precedence on that day :

Provided that, with the consent of the President, six days' notice shall not be necessary if the Minister agrees to accept shorter notice.

Time of asking leave.

- Method of asking leave.      62. The member asking leave must hand to the President a written statement of the matter proposed to be discussed, and must annex thereto the consent of the President in writing, to his motion.
- Procedure to be followed.      63. If the President is of opinion that the matter proposed to be discussed is in order, and if it has not been disallowed under the rules, the President shall read the statement to the Council and ask whether the member has the leave of the Council. If no objection is taken, the President shall intimate the hour at which the motion will be taken. If objection is taken, he shall request those members who support the motion to rise in their places, and, if not less than thirteen members rise accordingly, he shall similarly intimate the hour. If less than thirteen members rise, the President shall inform the member that he has not the leave of the Council.
- Limitation of time of discussion.      64. (1) The debate on a motion to discuss a matter of urgent public importance if not earlier concluded shall automatically terminate at the end of two hours, and thereafter no question can be put.
(2) No speech during the debate shall exceed fifteen minutes in duration.
- Discussion of Budget.      65. No discussion of the Budget shall take place on the day on which it is presented.
- Giving of notice.      66. (1) Every notice required by the rules or standing orders shall be given in writing, addressed to the Secretary and may be left at the Council office, which shall be open for this purpose between the hours of 11 and 3 o'clock on every day, except Sunday or a public holiday, or may be posted.

JUDICIAL AND LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENTS.

Judicial.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 2549J.—1st April 1937.—The Governor is pleased to issue the following directions regarding the appointment and remuneration of the Advocate-General of the Province of Bengal and the duties to be referred or assigned to him, namely:—

Advocate-General.

1. Terms and conditions of appointment.—(a) The Advocate-General is the Chief Legal Adviser of the Government of Bengal. Subject to the provisions of section 55 of the Government of India Act, 1935, his appointment shall ordinarily be for a term of five years, but terminable earlier on six months' notice by either the Governor or the Advocate-General and renewable at the option of the Governor at the end of the period. Such renewals shall not be restricted in number but shall never exceed five years at a time. He will receive a monthly retainer of Rs. 2,000 which will cover all his work of an advisory nature as well as the duties enumerated in Rule 3 post.

(b) During any absence or deputation of the Advocate-General, the Governor may appoint a person to act as Advocate-General and the person so appointed will receive the full amount of the retainer of the post and exercise all the powers of an Advocate-General until his predecessor in office has returned to his duties.

2. Statutory powers and functions.—The Statutory powers and functions vested in the Advocate-General, Bengal, are as follows:—

(i) East Indian Company Act, 1813, 53 Geo. 3, c. 155, s. III; power to file information for debts due to the Crown.

Note.—This power was kept alive by section 2 of the Government of India Act, 1833, and again by section 1 of the Government of India Act, 1853, merged in the Government of India Act, 1858.

This has not been limited or affected by the Code of Civil Procedure (section 79 of Code).

(ii) Civil Procedure Code, Act V of 1908, s. 91; power to institute and sanction suits in respect of public nuisances.

(iii) Civil Procedure Code, section 92; power to institute and sanction suits in cases of public trusts of a charitable or religious nature.

All Collectors and Deputy Commissioners are empowered under section 93 of the Civil Procedure Code to exercise within the limits of their respective districts (excluding the town of Calcutta) the power conferred by sections 91 and 92 of the Code.

(Eastern Bengal and Assam Government notification No. 704J., dated the 22nd February 1909, and Bengal Government notification No. 3592L.R., dated the 15th April 1918.)

These notifications do not, however, divest the Advocate-General, Bengal, of his powers under sections 91 and 92 though these enable them also to be exercised by the above officers of the Local Government.

(iv) Indian High Courts Act, 1861, Letters Patent for the High Court, 1865, clause 26; power to certify for review of criminal cases tried on the Original Side of the High Court on ground of error of law.

(v) Criminal Procedure Code, Act V of 1898, section 333; power to stay proceedings in the High Court at any stage of a criminal trial.

(vi) Criminal Procedure Code, section 194 (2); power (with the previous consent of the Government of India or of the Local Government) to exhibit information for all purposes for which the Attorney-General may exhibit information on behalf of the Crown in the High Courts of Justice in England.

Note.—The Attorney-General has power to exhibit ex-officio criminal information (as a mode of instituting criminal proceedings without indictment by a Grand Jury) in any case of misdemeanour as distinguished from felony.

(vii) Criminal Procedure Code, section 495 (1); the right to conduct a prosecution before any Magistrate without permission of the Magistrate.

(viii) Lunacy Act, IV of 1912, section 39; power to make application for inquisition in Lunacy.

3. Duties without fees.—In addition to the duties the Advocate-General has to perform under English and Indian Statutes, he shall perform without fees the following duties:—

(i) He will advise upon any matter upon which he is consulted by the Governor through the Government Solicitor, the Legal Remembrancer or the Standing Counsel.

(ii) He will appear in the following civil cases:—

(a) Cases in the ordinary or extraordinary Original Jurisdiction of the High Court to which the Province is a party.

(b) Cases in the ordinary or extraordinary Original Jurisdiction of the High Court to which Government officers are parties and which the Governor has decided to conduct on behalf of such officers.

(c) Cases in the ordinary or extraordinary Original Jurisdiction of the High Court in which neither the Governor nor Government officers are directly interested, but in which the Governor considers himself to be sufficiently interested to render it advisable to conduct the cases on behalf of some third person.

This does not include cases of the Court of Wards, Calcutta Corporation, Calcutta Improvement Trust, Calcutta Port Trust or any other public corporate body. Cases of such quasi-public departments as the Board of Examiners are however included.

(d) Original cases of the same nature as those referred to in items (a), (b) and (c) originally filed in some other Court and transferred to the High Court.

(iii) Appeals from the cases referred to in clause (i).

(iv) He will appear in the High Court (Original Side) in the references under the Stamp Act, Probate Act and the like.

(v) He will similarly appear when so required before the High Court on its Original Side in references from the Presidency Small Causes Court Judges to which the Province is a party or can otherwise be heard.

Note.—In all the above cases the Advocate-General will be at liberty should he be so disposed, to claim his fees if recovered from the other party.

(vi) He will represent the Crown at all stages in all criminal cases arising within the ordinary Original Jurisdiction of the High Court, whether the Tribunal be a Judge and Jury or a Special Tribunal and in all quasi-criminal matters such as cases under the Press Act, Habeas Corpus and Extradition cases arising within the same limits provided always that the Governor considers that owing to the special importance of the case the attendance of the Advocate-General is desirable.

Note.—Ordinary criminal prosecutions in the High Court are left to the Standing Counsel.

4. Scale of fees.—The Advocate-General will appear in any case other than those mentioned in rule 3 when so required by the Legal Remembrancer, and will be paid fees according to the following scale:—

(i) Appearance in the High Court:—

(a) Regular civil appeals, criminal appeals, miscellaneous proceedings in which evidence is taken or the hearing of which extends for the whole day—30 gold mohurs.

Note.—Analogous criminal appeals and references arising from the same judgment shall be deemed to be one appeal or reference for the purpose of this rule.

(b) Second appeals, miscellaneous appeals motions and other miscellaneous proceedings except those mentioned above—15 gold mohurs.

Note.—Analogous second appeals and application arising from the same judgment shall be deemed to be one appeal or application for the purpose of this rule.

(c) Appearance before special benches of the Calcutta High Court if the case is one arising outside the limits of Ordinary Original Jurisdiction of the High Court—30 gold mohurs.

(ii) Appearance in Calcutta outside the High Court such as appearances in the Police Court, Small Causes Court or Board of Revenue—30 gold mohurs.

(iii) Appearances in Howrah, Alipore, Sealdah or elsewhere in the suburbs of Calcutta—45 gold mohurs.

(iv) Appearance in the mufassal outside the above limits—60 gold mohurs.

(v) Consultation fee in cases for appearance in which fees are payable each—5 gold mohurs.

Note.—Ordinarily one consultation fee only will be allowed. The Legal Remembrancer, however, before delivering the brief will, after consulting the lawyer-in-charge of the case, form an estimate of the number of consultations which may be necessary and will inform the Advocate-General accordingly. This number may be increased in a proper case at the instance of the Advocate-General and on a reference to the Legal Remembrancer. If in the course of a trial or appeal an immediate consultation becomes necessary, the Advocate-General will be entitled to hold the same and will inform the Legal Remembrancer without delay.

(vi) Perusal fee.—No fee is ordinarily admissible.

Note.—The Legal Remembrancer, however, after consulting the lawyer-in-charge of the case may recommend a special perusal fee, if claimed, in cases of complexity involving prolonged labour, which will be fixed by the Governor exercising his individual judgment.

(vii) When two or more regular civil appeals are heard together on the Appellate Side of the High Court 30 gold mohurs for the first appeal and 7½ gold mohurs for each analogous appeal subject to a maximum of sixty gold mohurs for the whole day.

5. Governor's power.—The Governor may grant fees to the Advocate-General in any cases falling within the classes for which ordinarily he would receive no fees provided they are of exceptional difficulty or that the hearings have been or likely to be unduly prolonged.

6. Approval of Finance Department.—When the Legal Remembrancer proposes to engage the Advocate-General or the Standing Counsel at a fee higher than their prescribed rates or any counsel at a fee higher than twenty gold mohurs, he will obtain the previous approval of the Finance Department to the fee proposed. When, however, there is no time to make a reference to the Finance Department, the Legal Remembrancer may act on his own responsibility and refer to the Finance Department as soon as possible after the engagement is made.

7. His limitations.—The Advocate-General as conditions of his service is debarred from—

(i) Advising or holding briefs against the Province;

(ii) Defending accused persons in criminal prosecutions; unless specially authorized by the Governor.

[e. g., in a private prosecution in which Government is not interested.]

(iii) Advising private parties in cases in which he is likely to be called on to advise the Governor; and

(iv) Accepting appointment as a Director in any Company without the sanction of the Governor.

The officer himself must, however, be the judge as to whether he can, or cannot under rule (iii) advise on a question of law any private party who applies to him.

8. Control of expenditure.—The Legal Remembrancer is the controlling officer in respect of expenditure incurred by the Advocate-General.

The Bengal Legislative (Joint Sittings and Communications) Rules.

1. These rules may be called the Bengal Legislative (Joint Sittings and Communications) Rules.

2. In these rules—

- (1) "the Act" means the Government of India Act, 1935;
- (2) "Council" means the Bengal Legislative Council;
- (3) "member" means a member of the Bengal Legislative Council or of the Bengal Legislative Assembly;
- (4) "President" means the President of the Bengal Legislative Council;

- (a) he shall cause a notification to be published in the Calcutta Gazette appointing the day, hour and place for the meeting, and
- (b) the Secretaries of the Chambers shall send to each member of their respective Chambers a summons to attend the meeting.

4. If the Bill for the disposal of which a joint sitting has been summoned under the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 74 of the Act is not completed on the day appointed under rule 3, the Governor may appoint a day or days for the continuation of the sitting.

5. In the absence of the President, the Speaker shall preside at a joint sitting summoned under the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 74 of the Act. In the absence of both the Speaker and the President the Deputy President, or if the Deputy President, is also absent the Deputy Speaker, shall preside. If the Deputy Speaker is also absent the members present shall choose a member to preside.

6. No business other than the Bill for the disposal of which the joint sitting has been summoned under the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 74 of the Act, shall be taken up at such a sitting, nor shall any motion for adjournment be permissible.

7. If at any time during a joint sitting summoned under the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 74 of the Act less than fifty-two members are present, it shall be the duty of the person presiding either to adjourn the sitting or to suspend the sitting until at least fifty-two members are present.

8. (1) At a joint sitting summoned under the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 74 of the Act the member in charge of the Bill may move that the Bill as passed by the Council, or if it has not been so passed, as passed by the Assembly, be taken into consideration. If this motion is carried any member may, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 74 of the Act, propose amendments to the said Bill. After the disposal of the amendments, if any, the member in charge may move that the said Bill, with such amendments as are made in the joint sitting, be passed.

(3) For the purposes of this rule "member in charge of the Bill" means, in the case of a Government Bill, any member acting on behalf of the Government and, in any other case, the member who has introduced the Bill.

9. Subject to the provisions of these rules, the rules of procedure and standing orders as modified, adapted and made applicable to the Council under sub-section (3) of section 84 of the Act, or the rules made for the Council under sub-section (1), as the case may be, and the rules made for the Council under the proviso to the said sub-section shall, so far as may be, apply to joint sittings summoned under the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 74 of the Act and to Joint Committees.

10. (1) If a difference of opinion arises between the two Chambers in regard to any matter, or if in respect of any matter a Conference between the Chambers is considered desirable, and a resolution is passed in either Chamber that the matter should be discussed at a Conference, a message shall be sent to the other Chamber to inform it of the resolution and to desire its concurrence in the resolution.

(2) If the other Chamber agrees, a motion shall be made in each Chamber nominating the members of that Chamber who are to represent it at the Conference. At a Conference each Chamber shall be represented by an equal number of members.

(3) Save that the provisions of the rules made for the Council under the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 84 of the Act shall, so far as may be, apply, the Conference shall determine its own procedure.

(4) The day, hour and place of the Conference shall be fixed by the President.

11. (1) If a resolution is passed in the originating Chamber recommending that a Bill should be committed to a Joint Committee of both Chambers, a message shall be sent to the other Chamber to inform it of the resolution and to desire its concurrence in the resolution.

(2) If the other Chamber agrees, a motion shall be made in each Chamber nominating the members of that Chamber who are to serve on the Committee. On a Joint Committee equal numbers of members of each Chamber must be nominated.

(3) The Chairman of the Committee shall be chosen by the Committee. He shall have only a single vote, and, if the votes are equal, the question shall be decided in the negative.

(4) The day, hour and place of the meeting of the Committee shall be fixed by the President, provided that if the business for the disposal of which the Committee has been formed is not completed on the day appointed, the day and hour of subsequent meetings shall be fixed by the Chairman.

12. (1) Messages between one Chamber and the other Chamber shall be conveyed by the Secretary of the one Chamber to the Secretary of the other, or in such other manner as the President and the Speaker may agree.

(2) Such a message shall be conveyed to the members of the receiving Chamber at the first convenient opportunity—

(a) if the said Chamber is in session, by the President or Speaker, as the case may be, or

(b) if the said Chamber is not in session, by its Secretary.

13. At a meeting of the Chambers assembled together under the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 63 of the Act—

(c) no business other than the hearing of the Governor's address shall be taken up, nor shall any motion for adjournment be permissible.
